B. The Superior Court Has Established Procedures for Filing Proofs of Claims.

Claims must be filed on the Proof of Claim form provided herewith. All claims, whether contingent, liquidated, unliquidated, or disputed, and claims that are secured with interests or liens against property of the Receivership Estate, arising prior to the appointment of the Receiver, must be served in accordance with this Notice and RCW 7.60.210. Any claim not so filed is barred from participating in any distribution to creditors in the Receivership proceeding and may be deemed to have waived any further notice of proceedings.

1           C.    Claims.

2           Claims must be served by delivering or mailing the Proof of Claim form such that it is
3 received by the Receiver or his attorneys within 120 days from the date notice was given by mail
4 or August 1, 2011, whichever is later. Claims need not be filed with the Clerk of the Court.

5           Claims filed by state or federal agencies must be filed not later than 180 days from the 6 date notice was given by mail or by September 9, 2011, whichever is later.

7           The Superior Court has reserved the right to establish additional Claims Bar Dates as the 8 interests of justice or the circumstances of the case warrant.

9           Claims must be in writing and provide the information required by the Proof of Claim
10 form provided herewith. At a minimum, the claim must identify the name and address of the 11 claimant(s), the nature and amount of the claim, and the date of the claim, and be executed by 12 the claimant or authorized representative of the claimant(s). When a claim, or a security interest
13 in property of the Receivership Estate is based on a writing, the original or a copy of the original
14 writing must be included as part of the Proof of Claim, together with evidence of perfection of 15 any security interest or other lien asserted by the claimant(s). A claim, executed and served in 16 accordance with this Notice, constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the 17 claim.
